

TABLE OF CONTENTS

JOURNAL OF THE PHILIPPINE DERMATOLOGICAL SOCIETY

NOVEMBER 2020

VOLUME 29

NUMBER 2

I. EDITORIAL
a. Impact of the pandemic on scientific publications.....	5
II. METHODOLOGIC REVIEW
a. Assessment of quality of systematic reviews in dermatology using AMSTAR 2 Part 2 of 2. Validity and reliability testing of AMSTAR 2 (UP-PGH)	6-19
III. CLINICAL TRIAL
a. A double-blind, randomized controlled trial on the efficacy and safety of 4% niacinamide cream on the treatment of mild to moderate chronic plaque psoriasis at the University of Santo Tomas Hospital Out-Patient Department (UST)	20-34
IV. LET'S HEAR FROM A COLLEAGUE
a. Guidelines for the management of atopic dermatitis: a literature review and consensus statement of the Philippine Dermatological Society	35-58
V. CASE REPORTS
a. A case report of a successfully treated Mycoplasma -induced Rash and Mucositis (MIRM) in a 10-year-old Filipino (SLMC)	59-62
b. A case of bullous pemphigoid uniquely associated with dipeptidyl peptidase-4 (DPP-Inhibitor) (SLMC)	63-66
c. Erythrokeratoderma variabilis et progressiva in a Filipino Girl: a case report (UST)	67-72
VI. WHAT LIES BENEATH
a. Upper lip squamous cell carcinoma arising from discoid lupus erythematosus treated with standard wide excision (JRMCC)	73-77

VII. TROPICAL GROVE

- a. Subcutaneous zygomycosis due to Basidiobolus ranarum in a Filipino child responding to itraconazole: a case report (UST) 78-82

VIII. CRITICAL APPRAISAL

- a. Tumor check through teledermatology: a critical appraisal (SLMC)..... 83-92